WHO WE ARE

The mission of Wylde Center is to connect people to nature.

Wylde Center accomplishes this through educational programs, events and greenspaces that actively engage youth, families and individuals in their environment, health and community, and that develop skills in environmental science, sustainable urban living, organic gardening, health, and nutrition.

Wylde Center was founded in 1997 out of a need to provide opportunities to experience nature in an urban environment. As a result of the community's involvement and commitment, the organization has evolved into a large and active nonprofit organization operating five greenspaces (Oakhurst Garden, Sugar Creek Garden, Hawk Hollow, Edgewood Community Learning Garden, and the Mulberry Fields Garden) in four different Decatur and Atlanta neighborhoods, open year round for the community, for events and for Wylde Center's educational programs.

Additionally, Wylde Center provides one of the largest youth environmental and science education programs in metro-Atlanta, including the Decatur Farm to School program, Atlanta Farm to School, Healthy Living by Healthy Growing at the Decatur Housing Authority, and science program and field trips linked to Common Core standards.

The organization strives to provide an environment that cultivates a spirit of service, respect for diversity, global citizenship and character. Our commitment to a diverse, equitable and inclusive culture is reflected in a community in which differences are embraced, and staff, volunteers, and community partners have a sense of belonging.

At the Wylde Center, we hire culturally competent and responsive candidates who believe in the critical importance of diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) in the success of an organization and can effectively incorporate those principles in their professional roles. The Wylde Center actively seeks candidates from historically underrepresented populations.

The ideal candidate will have strong leadership skills and experience in working with diverse communities, and approach their work through the lens of racial justice and equity to help further our goal of making our gardens and programs safe and accessible to all, regardless of background.

The Wylde Center understands and values sustainability as an organizational operating principle and is committed to continued learning on issues related to sustainability and resilience.
